The Marty Alberni Junior Herdsperson Award

Congratulations to 2011 Winner:

Jessica Taylor

This award will be judged on Saturday 25th February, 2012 in conjunction with the Dairy and Beef Cattle Show.

The Competition is open to all cattle handlers, under 25 years of age, on the day of the Show.

Judges will take into consideration the following:

- General enthusiasm and initiative
- Presentation of the herdsperson
- Presentation of exhibit/s including bedding, Breed promotion etc.
- Safety around cattle
- Involvement in Junior Handler/Judging Classes.

You do not need to be at the Show with your own cattle.
You can be assisting an owner or be employed by an owner.

Judges will be appointed and will not be made known to you.

We will require you to register so that the following information can be supplied to the judges:

- Do you have your own animals at the show?
- Are you working for a Beef/Dairy Stud?
- If yes, please indicate name of Stud?

If you are not working with a Stud/Exhibitor we would encourage you to approach an Exhibitor and ask if they might like your help and perhaps allow you to enter in the Young Handlers with one of their animals.

The aim of this competition is to encourage young people and assist them in learning to handle and understand Showing.

The Berwick Show Society prides itself on the involvement and enthusiasm of young people with the Show Society and especially the running of the Cattle Section.
